

Goodbye to Our Centennial Year

2022 was a milestone year for the Smithfield Public Library. This wonderful Carnegie Library was built in 1922 and has been serving the community for 100 years. Thank you for helping us celebrate. We plan to cap this year by creating a time capsule full of memories, artifacts and community memories.

We would also like to recognize Marilyn Benavides for her 50 years of library service. She has guided the Smithfield Public Library through numerous changes throughout the years. From card files to digital files, from hardback books to e-books and from a 100 year old Carnegie building to the expanded addition we enjoy today.

Thank You Marilyn,
from the staff and patrons of the Smithfield Public Library.

The library is now sending text notifications about holds, inter-library loans and other library information. We hope this will improve our ability to communicate with you, getting you the information you need!
