

SMITHFIELD PUBLIC LIBRARY

MAY 2023

Smithfield Library @ Health Days

Smithfield Health Day's is quickly approaching and the library plans to be part of the festivities. Watch for us on Saturday, May 13th. We'll be holding a used book sale in front of the library steps from 9 to 11 am. We will then move the book sale to our booth at Forrester Acres where we'll have library staff ready to talk about all things library. Be sure to visit our booth and make a quick STEM craft, spin our prize wheel, enter drawings and celebrate the Smithfield Library! We will also be cruising down the street in the Health Days parade. Watch for us and be sure to wave 'Hello!' We can't wait to see our community at our favorite community event!

Paper Sculpture Sale

The library is selling these wonderful paper sculptures. Visit the library to see what beautiful creations are available. All sculptures are one of a kind and we'll be adding new ones throughout the month of May! All proceeds will go to our summer reading programming.

April Candy Egg Winner

Congratulations to Tyson Krambule winner of the library's Candy Egg Counting Contest! He guessed 1157 pieces of candy were in our giant egg which was just 16 away from the correct number, 1173. Enjoy your spoils and congratulations on an amazing guess!
